1151 WELLS STREET BURTON, MI

On 01-17-2009, at approximately 0320 hours officers responded to the 400 block of Lynn Street in reference to a possible burglary being attempted to an occupied residence. The caller advised police that it appeared someone was attempting to gain entry into the rear portion of the complainant's residence. A white male later identified by a Michigan identification card as Philip Andrew Dushan was standing next to several vehicles at a residence on Lynn Street. The officers on the scene noticed that the subject in question was holding onto a black purse and a bag of clothes among other items. Apparently, the subject was not successful in dispelling the officers' alarm so they continued to investigate. The officers advised the subject of his right to remain silent however he chose to answer questions and speak to the officers. The officers recovered a knife and a pair of wire cutters. As the officers continued to investigate, they discovered that at least 4 vehicles were burglarized and 2 residences. An assortment of stolen property was recovered. The subject was ultimately placed under arrest and taken to the Seminole County Jail.
